

Introduction.

In 1997, Prof. Khuda-Bukhsh proposed that homeopathic substances have the capacity to interact with the genetic blueprint and deliver their benefits by increasing the expression of genes that synthesise health promoting proteins. Since then, work by Prof. Khuda-Bukhsh and other scientists have clearly demonstrated that homeopathic substances do have the capacity to do this.

The genetic blueprint contains many genes that promote health as well as many genes that cause disease. With a view to increasing the specificity and safety of gene targeting by homeopathic DNA, (because homeopathic DNA, which is of undefined sequence, induces various disease symptoms in healthy people) Drs. Jenaer and Marichal pioneered the use of highly diluted small DNA molecules with well-defined sequences to target immune response genes and fight infections. Their system, called Micro-Immunotherapy proved to be very effective. The Homeovitality system was developed along the same lines as Micro-Immunotherapy.

The Homeovitality system uses highly diluted DNA molecules with precise sequences to target genes that produce the body's natural proteins that have been proven to promote health as well as protect against and resolve many diseases. A description of the current range of products within the Homeovitality system, and how to use them most effectively and safely is detailed below.

Safety Of The Homeovitality Health Care System.

The Homeovitality system has been developed to avoid the prospect of inducing disease symptoms in recipients because it uses DNA molecules with standardised sequences that target only genes that have been proven to support health and resolve disease.

Some have expressed concerns about ingestion of DNA. There is no need for concern whatsoever because, as well as homeopathic DNA, many homeopathic remedies such as nosodes as well as sarcodes and plant derived remedies may contain foreign DNA, mutated DNA and DNA from infectious agents.

So, to put practitioners' and clients' minds at ease, gene expression supported by the Homeovitality system is safer and better controlled than gene expression alterations effected by homeopathic remedies and dietary components.
